“Through the Lens of Scripture”

by Bill Coe

A definition of SCRIPTURE by Crudens Complete Concordance: (Literally from the Latin, a writing. The word as used in the Bible refers almost invariably to the sacred writings, which at that time consisted of the Old Testament only. It is also used of a part of it especially when that part is quoted in a later passage.) Daniel 10: 21 says in part, “But I will tell you what is noted in the SCRIPTURE of truth.”

Those who know and uphold SCRIPTURE realize that Daniel 12:2 speaks the truth. “And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life and some shame and everlasting contempt. Daniel 12:2-3 are explicit concerning the resurrection in the Old Testament.

Psalms 73:23-26 makes it clear that death is not the end for human beings as Isaiah 26:8 points out. Jesus rebukes many who denied the possibility by saying, “you are in error because you do not know the SCRIPTURES.” Matthew 22:29. Knowing the SCRIPTURES is the key to understanding God.

The resurrection of Jesus made clear the teachings of Christ and served as the main principles of apostolic preaching (Acts 2:24-26, Acts 3:15-16 – Acts 10:40 – 13:34 – 17:18-32).

The raising of Christ is God’s guarantee that we too will rise (1 Corinthians 15; 1 John 3:1).

1 Thessalonians 4:16 tells us, “For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first.” These inspired words to the congregation of the church by Paul describes the return of Jesus and our (their) resurrection. In Crudens Complete Concordance, you will find 36 references concerning the rising of the dead and living again.

Search the SCRIPTURES under any subject and you will find out what God wants you to know about that subject. Take (make) the time to follow-through with that idea and all your questions will be answered.
