“Talk Slow”

By Bill Coe

John Wayne once said “Talk low, talk slow and don’t say too much.” It seems like in today’s world that advice is hard to follow. In James 1:19, we find these words: “So then, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath.” Look at the three words “slow to speak.” How many times have you heard someone say, “What did he say?” Why do they say that? Is the speaker in such a hurry to finish that he runs through the words neglecting the hearers? In Proverbs 17:27, we find “He who has knowledge spares his words and a man of understanding is of a calm spirit.

I believe everyone (maybe not all) will agree that in today’s busy world it seems that the main word in life is “HURRY”. Let’s get it done now! Talk fast – Eat fast – Get out of here fast. Many of us can get caught up in the trend of the day.

Guy N. Woods tells us: Socrates was once approached by a young fellow who asked the ancient sage to teach him oratory. The young man rattled away at great length, and when at last, the philosopher was able to speak he informed the young man that he would be required to charge him a double fee. “Why a double fee,” he asked. “Because”, the famous teacher replied, “I shall have to teach you two sciences, first, how to hold your tongue, and second, how to use it.”

Solomon writes in Ecclesiastes 5:2, “Be not rash with your mouth, and let not your heart be hasty to utter anything before God for God is in Heaven and you upon earth; therefore, let your words be few.”

By listening to what folks say about various subjects, so much can be learned about the negatives and positives of life. I hear many talk about farm operations, family problems, personal applications of those subjects mostly by the common man with an 8-12 grade education. This sheds light on the thinking of those with higher education. Could it be true that many times the more degrees a person may have creates a fog over common sense?

It is so refreshing to hear vital lessons from a degreed speaker who can bring out just plain common thought for the common man – not too fast, not too slow, and not too long.
